Subject.
In re assumption of management by Govt., of the charities established by the late Mr. Bakshi Narasappa in Mysore city —

LAST REFERENCE:—

Letter No. 141 dated 29th Dec. 1903 from the Dy Commr., Mysore District.

The marginally noted inam lands have been endowed to the Sri Subrahmanya Eswara temple and the Chatram built in the Kalyani maidan, Mysore city, by the late Mr. Bakshi Narasappa. The annual income from the lands and from the rent on the shops attached to the temple & Chatram is reported to be Rs 1720/. In the Ayakat Book in the handwriting of the late Bakshi Narasappa, mention has been made of the circs under which the patta of the lands referred to above was made in his name. ~~in~~ (vide Patta granted on the 15th May 1861 by Major Clarke, late Dy Superintt, Ashtagram Div.) that the question of its transfer to the name of the minor son is under correspondence.

In 1892 when the question of Govt assuming the management came up, the deceased widow was alive & as she was managing the charities, she objected to give it over. They now pray that in view to the Charities being maintained in perpetuity, the Govt may be pleased to assume the management.

The Dy Comm of the Ilyasee Dt recommended that the assumption by Govt of the charities in his letter No 183 dy 14th January 1902 & on the letter being subtd to the Dewan, he was pleased to record that full inqy was necessary and ordered that the proposal may be provisionally accepted.

The particulars narrated in the foregoing paragraphs of this note are those received as called for under the Dewan's orders and reported in the Dy Comm's present reference

Sir,

In submitting herewith for the information of Govt. a file of Khanasa correspondence consisting of:-

(a) a petition from the guardian and the manager of minor Krishnaswami, the adopted son of the late Bakshi Narasappa, praying that the management of the pending Chattram and the Sri Subramanyaswara Swami temple established by the said Narasappa in the Kalyani maidan of the city of Mysore may be assum-

by Government, and

(b) the Proceedings of the Amildar of Mysore and his report No. 61 dated the 8th instant, shewing that unless the management is assumed by Government, the object of the charities is likely to fail;

I have the honor to recommend that, as prayed for by the petitioner, sanction may be accorded to assume the management of the charitable institutions, as well as the endowments connected therewith, as shewn in the accompanying copy of the will left by the late Bakshi Narasappa.

I beg also to recommend that a committee of Dharmadarsees named below be appointed to advise in the management of the charities;

1 Mr. Shamanna alias Shama Rao, the natural father of the minor Krishnasawmy,

2 The Vice President of the city municipality for the time being,

3 Mr. C. Venkata Rao B.A, Sheristadar, District Office Mysore

4 Mr. Venkata Krishnaiya, Head master, Maharaja's School, Mysore.

After the appointment of the committee, and after ascertaining the incomes of the endowments, I shall submit for the approval of Government, a Scheme for the management of the institutions and regulating the expenditure
